

We Welcome - Ilona E. Kochenburger

It is with great pleasure that Elkin Presbyterian Church announces the addition of Ilona Kochenburger as their administrative assistant to its staff.

Ilona is the friendly face and voice that welcomes you to EPC! She serves as our all-around administrative assistant and enjoys the creative side of the position managing the social media aspects, communications and web management administration.

Ilona's background includes 17+ years of church management experience as well as Diocesan level registrar management. Her work experience includes working with Unilever in various capacities – cash management, auditing, paralegal, customer service analyst, total quality programming to logistics management. She has also been a general manager with an all-natural product company.

As a military veteran, she has served 4+ years in the United States Air Force. Stationed at Little Rock Air Force Base, Jacksonville, AR – 37 Aerospace Rescue & Recovery Squadron, Detachment 4 - Helicopter Rescue and missile site transportation.

Ilona is originally from Mannheim, Germany . She enjoys spending time with her husband, Philip A. Kochenburger, retired Army Chaplain of 21 years of service. They have four grown children in Connecticut, New York and Florida with four furry children at home that somehow manage to keep them very busy!
